MYST®

Lost in a beautifully strange and isolated world, you find two magical books. Trapped inside each book is a man, a man begging to be set free. As you travel throughout this alien world you find more and more clues as to how to free these men – but you also learn why they were trapped in the first place. Should you set them free, or keep them locked away?
Only you can decide.
